

JOIN OUR TEAM

Woods Aitken LLP has a position available for a litigation attorney, with an emphasis in the firm's construction law practice. The firm values diversity, and we recognize that a legal team comprised of people with different strengths, experiences, and backgrounds is crucial to our ability to best serve our clients. We seek candidates with integrity that are strong in their own aptitudes and also recognize the importance of supporting each other.

Location:

Denver Tech Center Office

ABOUT

Woods Aitken LLP has been representing clients in the construction industry since the law firm was founded in 1921. Since its inception, members of the firm have represented family- or employee-owned construction companies, providing representation as a "trusted advisor" in the context of the client's overall strategic plan, strengths and vulnerabilities and with the client's long-term business goals as the ultimate measure of the firm's success.

APPLY

Please submit cover letter and resume to:
admin@woodsaitken.com

CONSTRUCTION LITIGATION ATTORNEY

DESCRIPTION OF ROLE:

Our construction practice is centered around providing our clients with exceptional representation in some of the nation's most complex construction disputes as well as providing whole-client representation on their construction-related needs, including contract drafting and reviewing, litigating and arbitrating, and providing creative legal and business solutions. Candidates will be expected to:

- Perform high-quality and efficient legal research and writing
- Counsel clients through all stages of disputes
- Manage, assist with, and navigate multi-party and complex negotiations and disputes
- Collaborate with attorneys and work as part of team

SKILLS REQUIRED:

Qualified candidates must possess the following qualifications and skills:

- Outstanding legal research and writing (writing sample required)
- Ability to manage deadlines and multiple tasks
- Strong organizational and analytical abilities
- Ability to work collaboratively and with a team, including demonstrable interpersonal skills
- Strong work ethic, showcasing self-starter mentality and attention to detail
- Prior experience practicing law, litigation preferred
- Admission to the Colorado Bar

BENEFITS:

The firm offers health, life, disability insurance, retirement plan, and paid leave. We also offer voluntary insurance for dental, vision, critical illness, accident, and additional life.

ESTIMATED COMPENSATION:

$100,000 to $250,000 depending on experience and desired role.